THE EXECUTIVE ORGANIZATION

THE Board of Education is responsible for the schools of Hammond. They finance, maintain and develop the educational opportunities of over 12,500 Hammond boys and girls.

This year's board is composed of Dr. Clarence A. McVey, President; Mr. Fred W. Dedelow, Secretary; and Mr. R. G. Arner, Treasurer.

Dr. McVey was born in San Pierre, Indiana, and was graduated from Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee, in 1921. He is now a prominent physician and surgeon in Hammond. In his spare time he enjoys fishing.

Chicago, Illinois, claims the honor of being Mr. Dedelow's birthplace; however, he received his education in Indiana. While not selling life insurance one may see him packing his family away on a picnic, for his hobby is nature and the great outdoors.

The three "R's" are taught very well in Remersburg, Pennsylvania, if Mr. Arner is an example, for he proved his ability at Ann Arbor and is at present assistant superintendent of the Sinclair Refining Company. He finds his greatest relaxation comes when "reeling the line" or using his mashie.

Mr. L. L. Caldwell, superintendent of schools, graduated from Simpson College, Iowa, and Iowa State Teachers' College. As his hobbies he prefers landscape gardening, fishing, and hunting in the North Woods. Through his alertness and keen intellect our schools rate among the best in Indiana.

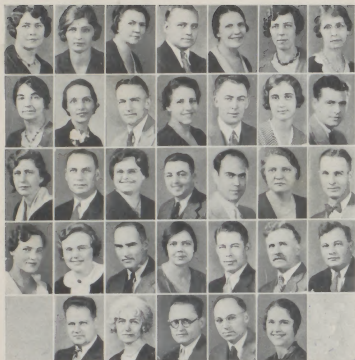

Our principal, Mr. Spohn, is a graduate of Earlham College, and because of his early association with beautiful central Indiana he still enjoys nature and may be seen tramping in the great outdoors during vacations. He capably handles all our school problems and is ready to give assistance and advice at all times.

THE FACULTY

THE Hammond High School has sixty-eight teachers, all of whom are worthy of recognition for their fine work, not only in the varied subjects which they teach, but also in our many extra-curricular activities. They supervise the clubs, the publications, and the law-making bodies of our school.

The courses are divided into departments with a teacher at the head of each. Miss Snyder heads the large group of English teachers composed of Miss Allman, Miss Bollenbach, Miss Chapman, Mr. Crews, Miss Exley, Miss Lowery, Miss E. McCullough, Miss H. McCullough, Miss McGranahan, Miss Overmeyer, Miss Phillippe, Miss Schwiebert, Miss Strange, and Miss White.

The History Department, made up of Mrs. Barnes, Mr. Beyer, Miss Breyfogle, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Coleman, Mr. Hendricks, Mr. Keeler, Miss Kirby, Mr. Nelson, Miss Robison, and Mr. Wilson, is guided by Miss Burhans.

The mathematicians, Mr. Garrett, Mr. Pittenger, Miss Schuelke, Mr. Seddlemeyer, Miss Thomas, and Miss Williams, are led by Mrs. Rupp.

Miss Wood has charge of the Language Department, which is composed of Miss Buck, Miss Pritchard, Miss Robards, and Miss Suerth.

Mr. Rupp is the leader of the group of scientists, Miss Gustafson, Mr. Hays, Mr. Long, Miss Reeder, and Miss Van Doornick.

The teachers who lead the students into the commercial world, Mr. Elliot, Miss Melick, Miss Parvis, Miss Schubert, and Miss Yoder, are under the guidance of Mr. Kumpf.

Mr. Howe has the responsibility of training our future printers.

The musicians of the school are directed by Miss Cain, Mr. Diercks, and Mr. Weimer, who through their work have made our excellent musical organizations.

Miss Schubkegel directs those who are artistically inclined, and these students do a great deal for the school in general through their posters and artistic aid with all our festivities.

Miss Heiner, Miss Bowles, and Miss Conroy are in charge of the Home Economics and our cafeteria.

Miss Hawver is always ready to help the students who enter the library in quest of reference or fiction books.

The young athletes are trained by Mr. Huffine, Miss Anderson, Miss Deiterich, Miss Easton, and Mr. Scott.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

ELEVEN years ago the Hammond High School organized an association in which every student is a part. Our school government is patterned after that of our own United States, so that each student on entering the school becomes a "citizen" of Hammond High with his due civil rights. In receiving the great honor of becoming a citizen of the government, it is the duty of each student to co-operate to the best of his ability with the chosen leaders of the school organization. This co-operation was shown this year by the fine attendance at the football and basketball games, school dances, concerts, and various other activities.

The officers of the association are President, Don Schulte; Vice-President, Palmer Burns; and Recorder, Marianne Estrup. These officers were elected in the spring of last year; and they have faithfully carried out their duties and the many plans and suggestions submitted for a better high school.

The president has various duties. He appoints his cabinet, composed of four members: Betty Clark, Secretary of Student Activities; Francis Gray, Secretary of Public Safety; Joe Palko, Secretary of Discipline; and Arthur Erickson, Secretary of the Junior Red Cross. The secretary of student activities has charge of all student affairs which include dances, athletic events, and other special affairs of the school year. The secretary of discipline presides over the student court and handles misdemeanors which may arise. The secretary of public safety takes charge of the hall during lunch periods and provides for order in the school at all times. This year the Junior Red Cross organized a council composed of one member chosen from each advisory. This, together with the Junior Red Cross Committee, is under the supervision of the secretary of the Junior Red Cross.

THE STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

THE president also presides over the Senate, which is composed of two freshmen, two sophomores, three juniors, and three seniors. This past year, the Senate has been striving to arouse greater interest in the association and bring it into closer association with the student body which it represents; also to further the interests of the students in school activities. They succeeded in doing this when they passed the appropriation bill for a moving picture machine. As a result, the student body has had many enjoyable moments. The members of this year's Senate are: Warren Harris, Phil Beatty, Bob Bigelow, Virginia Good, Audrey Bell, Tom Cosgrove, Lucy Jo Brusch, Chuck Bounds, Den Dutton, and Dick Brusch, with Mr. Nelson as advisor. The recorder, Marianne Estrup, records the minutes of the Senate meetings.

The vice-president, Palmer Burns, presides over the House of Representatives, which is composed of one representative from each advisory. Much like the House of Representatives in our own national government, it voices the many opinions of the individual through the lesser governments, which are the advisory groups. In order for any bill to become a law, governing the school association, it must be voted upon and passed by the House. At the beginning of the year the House met for the first time and maintained an organization meeting, Palmer Burns presiding. Melverne Trutt was elected vice-speaker and Marjory Dickson received the position of secretary. At this time several committees were appointed by the Speaker. Ruth Fischer, Ernest Kirby, and Ethel Kazen were appointed to serve on the Rules Committee; Cornelia Hoving, Glen Bigelow, and Edna Mae Borders were appointed to serve on the Eligibility Committee; and the Scholarship Committee was made to consist of Bill Lowery, Alice Beckman, and Mary Ann Sohl. Mr. Campbell piloted the House through a very successful year.

STUDENT COURT

Top Row—Bigelow, Adams, Schultz, Dorsey.

Row I —Bakalar, Coolman, Palko, Short, Barrows.

ELIZABETH BAKALAR, Kathryn Coolman, Catherine Short, Barbara Barrows, Glen Bigelow, Elmer Schultz, Floyd Adams, and Robert Dorsey compose the student court, which is organized to enforce the laws and "pass out" punishment to the students. The student court was organized in 1925 to act as the judicial body of the high school association, and those members who are a part of it are appointed by the Secretary of Discipline. The court tries cases for misdemeanors committed in the school building, such as eating in the halls, disorderly conduct in the halls, and failure to close lockers securely.

The House and Senate have passed the following bills: The Junior Red Cross bill formed a council consisting of one representative from each advisory; a bill was passed prohibiting students from wearing letters from foreign schools; the "Herald" was given the privilege of sponsoring a dance annually; a bill was also passed providing for the elections of senators to be held in the spring instead of . . .

SENIOR HISTORY

IN September of the year 1930, although this region was enjoying pleasant late summer weather, a group of three hundred and fifty freshmen gazed upon that large, foreboding building, Hammond High, with awe, and entered the same with cold chills and chattering teeth, usually symptoms of winter weather or "cold feet." On the first day of school, "the great wave of green"—not the Irish—journeyed far and wide in search of their classes and occasionally stumbled upon them. One of the more ambitious of the group was heard to say, on observing a mighty senior passing along the corridor with free and easy swing, importance blazed across his very countenance, "I hope we'll be like that some day!"

The next year the sophomore class reported to work with faces scrubbed clean, a meaning gleam in their eyes—to do or die! The green look having passed somewhat from about their gills, they set out to make a place for themselves in the every-day activities of school life.

The day dawned—at last, my hearties, we became juniors! No longer regarded as under-classmen, the class took heart and cooperated along the fields of scholarship and athletics in such a way as to deserve the right to be called upper-classmen. Great things were accomplished that year and a fitting climax occurred in the form of the Junior-Senior prom given by the juniors for the graduation class of '33. Our officers for this year were Bill Voss, President; Charles Bounds, Vice-President; Jane Stevens, Secretary, and Margory Dickson, Treasurer.

And so this group of children, so green and fresh—interpret the latter as you will—four years ago, turned out to be a promising group of students, who under the leadership of their officers, Bill Voss, Ben Dutton, Arthur Erickson, and Alberta Fischer, set out to uphold the torch flung them by the senior classes of past years. This was successfully accomplished and so the freshman's wish four years ago came true. Now we say to you, students, you may gaze with pride upon the graduation class of '34.

SENIOR WILL

THE Seniors of '34 were holding one of their orderly meetings in the auditorium one balmy day—

"We're leaving soon," sobbed the head Kingfish of all the rest of the poor fishy Seniors—"and what can we give to our beloved Alma Mater?"

Up jumped the dignified William Hutton and bellowed—"I'll give my snitzy suede jacket and tape to mend it with to my pal Bud Johnson." Ruth Cunningham, not to be outdone, shrieked that she would give half of her candy bar to Dick Whitney. "All I can leave Aline Cutler is my memory," murmured Robert Lawrence. "I think I'll leave the intelligent gleam in my eyes to Geraldine Lawson," chirped Marianne Fogg. Mary Kicho lisped that she would gladly leave her ability to read history reports at 200 words a minute to Winifred Tuley. "I'll leave my cha-a-r-ming personality to Frank Gursansky," called Palmer Burns. Up glided Geraldine Gaston and with her hand on her forehead and her eyes closed in a Garbo-esque pose muttered, "Ay tank Ay'll leave mine hair to Catherine Short." "What'll you do, wear a wig?" anxiously questioned Ernest Kirby. "We will leave our half interest in the school annual to anyone who will take it," sweetly whispered Elias Booth and Tom Nau, while Ervin Summers got up and moaned, "I'm sorry, brother Bob, but I can't leave you Betty." "And I'll also leave the privilege of writing in my 'I Told Me' column to Edgar Hudson," laughed Arthur Erickson, "and I hope Shirley appreciates my even considering it." "Everything I have is yours," crooned Bob Dobbins to the Junior class in general. "I'll give my lipstick and flame colored fingernails to any one who has the nerve to want them," giggled Ruth Toren. "I'll give my girl to the Hi-Y," shouted Andrew Gyoker. Ben Dutton muttered that he would give his car "Wimpy" to any Junior who was trusting enough to take it. "I'll give my silly smiles and my classical name to Tom Cosgrove—if he can take it!" volunteered Deane Clifford Wilde. "Somebody can have my little blue hat," stuttered the Gracie Allen of H. H. S., Vera May Beamer. Albert Domke and Russel Aageberg said that they had nothing to give because everything that they were fortunate enough to possess they would need in later life.

"Nothing for your friends or Alma Mater?" screamed President Voss.

"Nothing," the two Senior boys sobbed sadly.

"Go, you vicious vipers, and never darken our door again," commanded the President. And they went!

Mary Huffine, Alice Fischer, Ethel Kazen and Edna Mae Borders walked to the front of the auditorium and chorused sweetly in unison, "We, the 'Little Women' of our dear school, wish to set good examples for the younger girls and so we leave our sweetness and innocence to all our dear friends." "And I, the great Bounds, will give my good looks to every poor boy who is not as lucky as I am," shouted Charles. "B-o-o! B-o-o!" the Senior class chorused in answer to this.

JUNIOR HISTORY

IN the year of 1932 the doors of Hammond High School were opened to an enterprising crowd of freshmen. They entered shyly, gazing wide-eyed at the wonders of higher education as revealed in the activities of this venerable institution. Poor little innocents! You can't blame them for being shy. How could they have guessed that they would, in due time, develop into the blue ribbon junior class of all junior classes.

In 1933 the enterprising crowd of freshmen had changed to a sophomore class which showed definite promise. They began to hold up their heads, to walk a bit proudly, to take part in things.

Now, in the year of 1934, here we are, juniors! We now have a class organization—a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and, of course, a treasurer. We hobnob with the seniors in our celebrations—for aren't we the junior class of 1934? Need more be said?

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Is a junior branch of the Phi Beta Kappa, an honorary college organization for outstanding students in the senior class.

The members are chosen by the faculty on the basis of merit in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Membership in this organization is one of the highest honors a person can attain in his high school career.

THE ACE OF CLUBS

Is an exclusive freshman society for those who have a scholarship average of "B" or above. The main aims of this club are to raise the standard of scholarship, to increase co-operation between newcomers and teachers as well as to help the "freshies" become better acquainted.

JUNIOR HI-Y

- Top Row—Rhode, Meuler, Tuttle, Le Roy, Shropshire, Hutchins, Richter, Wolf, Van Straight, Kohl.

- Row I—Becktold, Bigelow, Smith, Mr. Beyer, Manis, Wilde, Gyoker, Lowery, Hutton, Slater.

THE JUNIOR HI-Y

Is organized under the same provisions as the Senior Hi-Y. The membership requires the same qualities but is limited to juniors only. Much good is accomplished by this organization in that it helps boys to learn greater co-operation and attain broader character development.

THE SENIOR HI-Y

Is a part of the National Y. M. C. A. connected with high schools. This group is open only to senior boys who have the approval of the faculty regarding spirit of service, character, scholarship, and leadership. It aims to maintain a high standard of character and leadership and to abide by the "Y" platform.

- Row I —Marks, Otto, Short, Northrup, Erickson, Miss Exly, Miss Van Doorninck, Bakalar, Van Tamelen, Church, Levine, Federoff.

THE SPHINX CLUB

IS composed of students who have received an "A" in any of the social sciences for the preceding semester. The club has as its purpose the bringing about of a closer contact between the students and faculty and the extension of acquaintance with persons prominent in the field of social science. Each member is given a Sphinx pin and graduating seniors are permitted to keep their pin as a fond remembrance.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS

IS an auxiliary branch of the Senior Red Cross, as its name implies. It works along the same lines and aims to carry out the work of the Senior Red Cross organization to the fullest extent. This year there are two branches of the organization: namely, the Junior Red Cross Committee, which is composed of ten members, two from each of the four classes, a post graduate, and the Secretary of the Junior Red Cross; the Junior Red Cross Council in which each advisory has one representative who has expressed an active interest in the work.

- Row I —Bakalar, Bechtold, Baldwin, Beckman, Keeler, Miss Robards, Bussell, Hopman, Gowell, Gursansky, Johns.

THE GERMAN CLUB

OTHERWISE known as "Der Deutsche Verein," tends to improve the ability of the students in speaking and understanding German, since the meetings are carried out entirely in this language. Those students receiving a "C" or above in the subject may become members, and the membership is limited to thirty. For this reason, character, spirit of service, and general scholarship are important qualifications as well.

THE FRENCH CLUB

WAS created to promote greater interest among the French students in speaking this language. The club's membership is limited to those students who earn a "B" average or above after a semester's study. All meetings are conducted in French and the programs are carried out in the useful foreign tongue.

BIOLOGY

Row II —Roan, Clarke, Levin, Federoff, McCall, Auch, Garner.

Row I —Beamer, Berggren, Booth, Miss Chapman, Schultz, Coolman, Blocker.

THE BIOLOGY CLUB

IS composed of students who are interested in gaining a greater knowledge of Biology and have attained an "A" or "B" average in this scientific subject. Members take field trips in order to analyze more accurately their natural surroundings. To plant a tree a year is one of their chief goals. In carrying out this aim the school grounds are greatly benefited.

THE BOHEMIAN CLUB

ATTEMPTS to encourage original and creative writing, the study of good literature, and standards of judgment. All pupils are eligible for membership. To become a member of this exclusive circle one must submit a specimen of his type of literary work which is passed upon by the officers and sponsors of the group. If such material is accepted as sufficiently original the amateur author enters the sacred domain.

Row I —Paterek, Hoving, Parks, Fiegle, Schoonover, Mr. Howe, Terry, Zick, Fiel, Daumer.

THE BOY SCOUT CLUB

ENDEAVORS to keep high school boys interested in scouting. Any scout in good standing, regardless of troop or rank, may belong. The same type of work is carried on by this group as any other scout organization. It cooperates with schools and the scout office in every way possible.

THE PRESS CLUB

IS one of the most interesting organizations in our high school. It is made up of boys who will probably be our printers and pressmen of the greater age in the future. Membership is open to any sophomore, junior, or senior who is taking or has taken printing in H. H. S. This group is largely responsible for the printing of the "Calumet Herald."

COMMERCIAL CLUB

- Top Row—Bagaloff, Garson, Petrick, Bernstein, Weliky, Schwerin, Sedlak, Prentkowski, Powelec, Csechi.
- Row III —Papais, Moritz, Yoder, Kicho, Bruhn, Dubbert, Conn, Mears.

- Row I —Overstreet, Swank, Harbert, Rawlins, Miss Schubkegal, Beer, Melton.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

IS a new organization for junior or senior commercial students who have a "B" average in scholarship. The club proposes to aid members by supplementing the regular commercial courses, and it is hoped that a higher scholastic rating will also result.

THE ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB

AN organization of art students having a "B" average for a semester's work in art, strives to further the members' knowledge of art and aims to help other school organizations through the medium of attractive posters. This club sponsors the largest undertaking of dancing entertainment during the entire year, namely the traditional Bal Masque.

THE NATIONAL ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

IS an organization composed of boys who have earned an "H" in one of the major sports and who also maintain a worthwhile scholarship record. This membership is a very great honor and also affords athletically talented boys the opportunity of securing aid for further pursuits of higher education.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

STRIVES to promote health and good sportsmanship as well as the backing of all sports. Every girl desiring membership must participate in at least one sport weekly, have an average grade of "C," and prove herself to be a good sport. Awards are offered to promote a more active interest in the club and related activities.

DEBATERS

Row I —Orphey, Chapman, Bakalar, Miss Hawver, Miss Exley, Beckman, Anderson, LaVigne.

THE DEBATE TEAMS

ARE composed of students who, in competitive try-outs, have proved themselves to have outstanding ability in organized formal argumentation and forensic powers. There are two teams, the affirmative and negative, each composed of three speakers and squad members who assist in research and discussion. This activity may well be considered a sport, since it takes as much preparation and training as any other, but still affords keen interest and enjoyment for the participants. Through this ambitious group much honor is brought to the school.

THE LIBRARY STAFF

IS composed of the students who are interested in library work and who help the librarian in serving the students each period of the day. Great service is rendered to all who desire it, and this fact makes our high school library indispensable.

THE GIRL RESERVES

As a junior branch of the Y. W. C. A., open to any girl in high school, 9A or above, who is willing to live up to the code, purpose and slogan. This organization is a part of the international circle of Girl Reserves and makes noteworthy accomplishments in that it is always ready and willing to help with all school activities, to say nothing of the benefits it provides for its members.

Because of the very large membership, it is divided into various groups which pursue some special type of activity particularly suited to the girls of that group. There are such groups as the Social Service Group, the Charm Group, the Outdoor Group, the Dramatic Group, and others closely associated which specialize in the subject or activity in most cases indicated by the title. These special groups are very successful in bringing about noteworthy accomplishments.

THE GIRLS' SENIOR GLEE CLUB

Is composed of girls having superior singing voices who have shown a marked interest in vocal pursuits. It is one of the pleasures afforded the musically inclined who are seeking greater knowledge along these lines. A high grade of music is developed through diligent practice.

THE GIRLS' JUNIOR GLEE CLUB

Is an organization for underclassmen who are interested in vocal work and wish to acquire experience and develop skill through practice. It is the largest of the vocal groups and has done remarkably fine work. Membership in this organization is one of the first steps toward greater achievement in the vocal organizations.

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB

EXISTS for boys who have some vocal ability and a great deal of interest in singing. The organization aims to help members appreciate the higher and better standard of music, and to learn to sing with others. Much pleasure is afforded the school by the enthusiastic work of this group in their programs of entertainment.

THE CHORAL CLUB

IS one of the most important vocal organizations, being composed chiefly of the best voices from the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. Musical quality is not the only qualification, for ability to read accurately and blend harmoniously with the rest of the voices are also important accomplishments. The Christmas caroling is one of the most important projects of the group, but many other activities are also enthusiastically carried out.

THE BOYS' BAND

OFFERS any boy who has a little musical ability and ambition the opportunity of developing his skill and learning greater appreciation for fine music. This organization is most advantageous because it teaches one co-operation and harmony. Much fine work is accomplished by this group and several extraordinarily talented musicians may be discovered.

THE GIRLS' BAND

PRESENTS the opportunity to all girls to show their talent and ability as musicians as well as the boys are enabled to do. Composed entirely of girls, this group presents an unusual spectacle, for not many schools can boast of such an attainment. This band is able to attain a degree of quality and skill equal to that of the boys' organization and may rightfully be praised highly.

THE HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

IS one of the most noteworthy organizations of the association. The training received through it enhances one's musical appreciation, technical skill, loyalty, and spirit of co-operation. Both boys and girls are given an opportunity to display, perfect, and utilize their musical skill on some instrument through membership in the orchestra. Credit is granted for orchestra work and the amount of the experience and training gained is invaluable.

THE BOOKROOM

IS one of the most important institutions in the school. It performs possibly the greatest service for all students. Through it one is able to conveniently purchase necessary supplies such as paper, notebooks, pencils, textbooks, etc., with much saving of time, labor, and money. All money received in the high school by the various organizations passes through its banking system. The workers in the Bookroom deserve much praise for their courteous and efficient work.

THE CALUMET HERALD

THE "Calumet Herald" is the students' newspaper, and it is published by a student staff familiarly termed the "Herald Staff." It is composed of the editor-in-chief, Jane Williams, and the business manager, Robert Dobbins, together with their respective assistants, Florence Levin, and Anabel Sproat. The total staff consists of approximately forty-five students who prepare news articles, features, humor, and pictures which all contribute to the interest of the paper, as well as those who take care of subscriptions, circulation, and finances. Besides furnishing fun and pleasure to the staff members, "The Herald" furnishes the school and community great pleasure also. Although the size of the paper is limited, the quality is incomparable.

This year a new idea was put into effect whereby the "Herald" sponsored an all-school dance at the conclusion of the subscription campaign. The event was very successful and enabled the staff to make a donation of one hundred dollars to the school library fund.

THE DUNES

THE Dunes staff compiles that most notable work "The Dunes," the High School Year Book. Its main purpose is to provide a record of the most important activities and events of the year.

The editorial staff, under the leadership of Jane Stevens, editor-in-chief, and Mary Anne Sohl, assistant editor, prepares the literary make-up. This consists of club write-ups, pictures, humor, and athletics. Throughout the year this work is carried on very diligently in order to make the publication the best possible.

The business staff is under the guidance of Dick Brusch, the business manager who is aided by Dick Whitney, the assistant business manager. This staff takes care of all matters concerning subscriptions, advertisements, and most important finances.

Both staffs are under the most able direction of Miss Eunice McCullough, the advisor, and strive to make the book a brilliant success. The release of "The Dunes" is an event looked forward to with as much interest as any other during the year.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

Is an organization for students having unusual dramatic ability and theatrical aspirations. It sponsors all dramatic activities in school and helps to promote a deeper interest in drama. Membership may be acquired in either of two ways—by open try-out at the beginning of the school year or by being cast in one of the major productions given during the year.

THE AUTOMOBILE CLUB

ADIMITS to membership any junior or senior possessing a motor vehicle operator's license who is desirous of entrance. This organization strives to promote greater caution in driving and to enlighten its members concerning various traffic regulations—all of which make for greater safety in motor transportation.

COACH HUFFINE

Football

ADDING night football this year to the attractiveness of supporting Hammond's moleskin warriors has raised football to a higher level than ever before in Hammond. The Hammond Wildcats of 1933 inaugurated the electric lighting system, and went through a tough ten-game schedule with five victories, three setbacks, and two ties.

Upsets marked the 1933 season, for the Whiting Oilers scored their first win over the Wildcats on the gridiron with a 7-0 score as did the Hammond Technical Tigers, who came out on the long end of the score for their initial victory over the Wildcats.

Although defeated thrice and tied twice, the Wildcats outscored their opponents, 142 to 65.

"Bob" Jones, all-conference guard, proved to be the stalwart of the green Hammond line, while Joe Palko, all-conference back, and "Charlie" Hicks, were the scoring punch of Hammond's system.

Next year's prospects are bright, featuring a heavy and experienced forward wall with fast and elusive backs.

This excellent photo shows the new $2,700 lighting system installed last year. The Wildcats are shown matching skill and brawn against the Blue Devils of Froebel.

Horace Mann of Gary going down to defeat in the skirmish with Wildcats. In this battle the Hammond team scored more points than in any other game.

HAMMOND VS. FORT WAYNE (18-7)—W.

The Wildcat's opening game with Fort Wayne, a highly rated squad, proved that the "33" team was a powerful one. After an early score by the visitors, the Purple led by the great runs of Palko, scored three times on successful marches. After this game high hopes were held for a great season.

HAMMOND VS. THORNTON FRACTIONAL (7-0)—W.

The Cats' second tilt proved to be a thriller. Thornton boasted a strong outfit and for nearly all of the four quarters neither team could pass the last white line. The fans had given the game up for a hopeless deadlock when Palko broke loose and ran forty yards for the winning touchdown.

HAMMOND VS. WHITING (0-7)—L.

Whiting, the Purples' first conference game, ended with disappointment for Hammond hopefuls. For reasons unknown, Hammond's strong offense could not do the damage aimed for, and when the gun ended the final quarter, the Wildcats had been handed their first defeat.

HAMMOND VS. EMERSON (0-0)

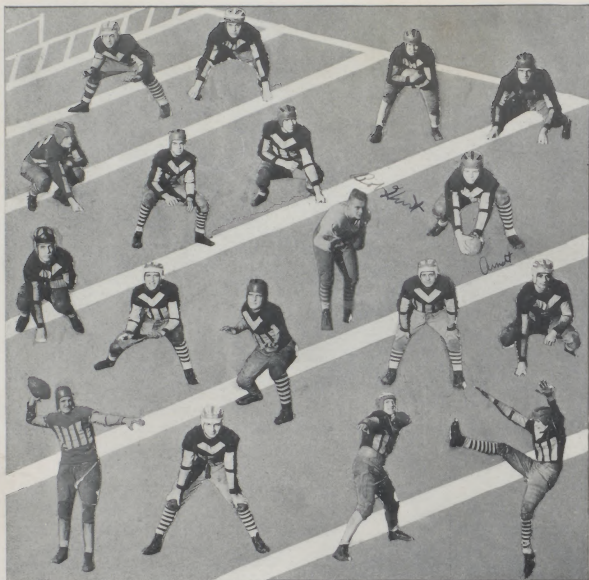

Following the Whiting game, the next conference struggle with Emerson of Gary, found the Cats still unable to hit their stride. Although some improvement was noted, their drives could not bring touchdown scores and Emerson, not a strong team, held us to a scoreless tie.

HAMMOND VS. ROOSEVELT (7-7)—T.

The Roosevelt game brought a surprise to those who had given the team up for lost. Roosevelt, a possible championship team, was conceded an easy win, but had reckoned without the Wildcats who definitely had "come back." Fighting courageously, they forced over the touchdown and kept the Roughriders from getting more than a tie.

HAMMOND VS. FROEBEL (18-6)—W.

Continuing their conference schedule, our Purple pigskin toters seemed in the mood to retain their form and win some more games. Froebel, next in order, had presented small opposition to other teams of the district, and the Wildcats were conceded the advantage. This time there were no hitches and after considerable action we emerged victors.

HAMMOND VS. CATHOLIC CENTRAL (27-0)—W.

Our apparently restored footballers met Catholic Central feeling fine and showed the same splendid fight that had defeated Froebel, the week previous. Running and blocking smoothly, the Cats scored almost at will and emerged from the game victors, after scoring four touchdowns and converting three kicks for extra points.

HAMMOND VS. WASHINGTON (20-13)—L.

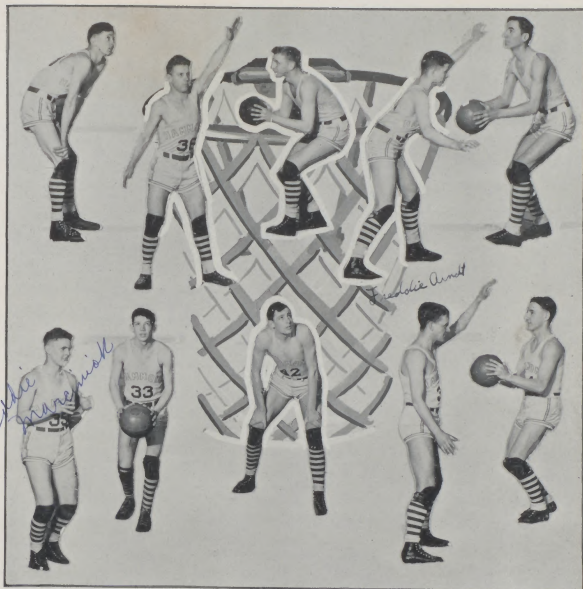

In the Washington game, although the Senators were considered a far more powerful machine, the Cats can lay their defeat to tough breaks but no matter how much effort was put forth, the fast stepping Rollins managed to elude one defense for substantial gains and the game ended with the Cats trailing.

HAMMOND VS. HAMMOND TECH (13-18)—L.

The city championship game this year as far as Hammond High is concerned brought disaster. For the first time in the football relations between the two schools, Technical produced a winning team. As a result of this defeat of the Cats, much more interest and importance will be placed on the city championship in the future.

HAMMOND VS. HORACE MANN (39-0)—W.

Angry over the defeat at the hands of the Washington team, Hammond's temperamental outfit returned to the fray with a vengeance against Horce Mann and administered a sound drubbing to the unsuspecting Garyites. This game marked the close of the conference season and showed Hammond with a rating of .500 per cent.

WILDCATS GO TO STATE!

THIS year brought to Hammond High School the most successful basketball season of the school's experience in this sport. It marked the winning of fourteen out of nineteen season clashes, the winning of the Gary sectional for the second, and second consecutive time, a triumph at the Valpo regional, and a journey to the much-famed State tourney at Butler Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

The opening of the season found prospects good, with the veterans of last year's sectional champions augmented by several promising newcomers. As the season wore on, the fondest hopes were gratified as the team showed itself as possessing all of the qualities indicative of a championship season. Each succeeding fray further proved the Purple machine to be the most potent in this section, and when the regional tournament ended, Hammond had sent its first team to the State.

COACH CAMPBELL

Basketball

A LONG with, and probably the cause of, the change of fortune of our basketball teams, came a new coach and successor to Mr. Huffine. This now famous man is "Spud" Campbell, upon whose team, this year, fortune chose to smile.

"Spud" has long been acquainted with the whys and wherefores of basketball, having played both in college and professionally, and last year was the unsung assistant coach. This year, however, the entire task was surrendered to him and he set about building some champions.

Under his watchful eye and steady Scotch smile the boys improved rapidly and surely, and at the end of the season loyal fans began to think of another sectional win. Hope flamed high when, contrary to precedent, the Wildcats were fortunate in their first drawings.

No disappointment was to come, either, as the Cats took Hobart, Calumet Township, and Whiting with little effort and went into the final against Hammond Tech, who also had come victorious to this point. True to form, here again our cagers showed their heels to a great team of our city rivals and won their second sectional in two years.

One other person must be given recognition for the part she played in this season of seasons, the girl under mention being our peppery little cheer leader, Lucille Johns.

To "Johnny" goes the credit for the great support shown our team during their hardwood wars, and for the fine spirit of the cheering sections and fans. Many were the times when the sturdy loyalty and timely yells led by this diminutive person have lent the necessary extra spirit to the team which changed the tides of battle from defeat to victory. It is support such as she gave that makes the differences between champions and "just another ball team."

LUCILLE JOHNS

BASKETBALL TEAM

Top Row—Salszynski, Evans, Schulte, Bounds, Higgins, Arndt.

Row I —Wide, Yablonowski, Mr. Campbell, Marsenick, Hudson, Bagaloff.

THE first game of the regional found the Cats pitted against Morocco and conceded a heavy advantage by the dopesters. They had an easy time and won handily, sending themselves to the finals against Valparaiso. Valpo had surprised the fans by overcoming a strong Michigan City five in the afternoon. This proved to be the hardest game of the year, but the Cats finally won in an overtime by a slim two points.

At the State Tourney our boys met a type of opposition to which they were little accustomed and had to call forth the best basketball that was in them. They succeeded in winning their first game from Greencastle and entered the quarter-finals against Indianapolis Tech. This team, coached by a brother of our own "Spud," proved too much for the Cats, but they were still scrapping when the game ended. This concluded their playing in the State Tourney, but they had acquitted themselves well.

SWIMMING

ALTHOUGH a team which was considered by many, at the start of the season, as another ordinary swimming team, the Hammond Wildcats of 1934 proved to be the best swimming team ever assembled in the Hammond pool.

Losing only one Conference meet during the season, finishing second in the Conference meet, and finishing second downstate, Hammond swimmers ended the greatest year in the history of this sport.

At Indianapolis, Hammond High came through with three firsts. Walter Meyn, Hammond back stroker, swam the 100-yard back stroke in 1:12.4, establishing a new State record. The old record was 1:14.4.

Another first was won by Ted Thomas, tiny breast stroker. Thomas swam the 100-yard breast stroke in 1:19.4, falling short of the record by two seconds.

Victories were won over such strong teams as Washington, Horace Mann, Whiting, Harvey, and Michigan City Y. M. C. A. Washington beat us by one non-conference team to conquer the Wildcats this year.

Coach Scott loses Captain Danch, Housley, Helton, and Mikulan, via the graduation route. Meyn, Thomas, Jacobson, and Erdman are the veterans returning to give Hammond a strong team, if not a stronger one than this year.

WRESTLING

Wrestling, a comparatively new sport in the school is becoming rapidly a very popular form of athletics. This year Coach Aurie Scott's team made another step up the ladder of success by taking third in the State meet, and second in the Northern Indiana Conference, to the latter of which, this year, Hammond was host. Growing interest in this sport was shown by the fact that at every home meet the gym was filled.

In the Conference meet every Hammond man placed in the following order: Firsts—Haak, heavyweight; Keeler, 145. Seconds—Adams, 165; Marquardt, 185; Morton, 135; Britton, 125; Zick, 118; and Janczko, 100. Thirds—Dutton, 175, and Etienne, 108.

In the State meet at Indiana University, Haak placed first, Sax and Storey placed second, and Zick placed third in their respective weights.

Only two men, Marquardt and Dutton, of Scotty's team graduate this year, which will leave him with a potential State championship team for next year. Plenty of material is at hand to replace the seniors, so much may be expected from next year's matmen.

CROSS-COUNTRY

LED by Melverne Trutt, the cross-country team of 1933 finished the most successful season in the history of the school under the guidance of Coach Easton.

Through Mr. Easton's coaching and supervision, cross-country has begun to creep up on the major sports and is becoming more popular year by year.

Melverne Trutt, all-state record holder of the 880-yard run (1:57.9), led the Purple runners. Papuga, Bunker, Staresnick, Holbrook, Farcus, Dycus, Luconi, and Hennings also ran for Hammond. All eight of these boys are returning next year to comprise Hammond's greatest cross-country team.

The hill-and-dale men opened their season against Froebel of Gary and emerged with a victory by the score of 18-37. Next on the schedule came Roosevelt of East Chicago, which ended in a 28-28 tie. The next victim of the Purple and White runners was Emerson of Gary, who came out on the short end of a 21-34 score. Hammond met its first defeat at the hands of Horace Mann of Gary, conference winners, 40-20. Coach Easton's lads ended their regular schedule by out-running Washington 15-65.

In the Horace Mann Invitational Meet, November 4, the Wildcats finished fourth.

The season came to a successful close when Hammond finished second to Horace Mann in the N. I. H. S. Conference Meet.

TRACK

Hammond's prospects for a successful track season looked good and started out well for 1934.

The medley relay team consisting of Frank Gross, Glenn McKay, Charles Bunker, and Melverne Trutt shattered the old State record by covering this distance in 4:52.4. This record event took place at the Central Intercollegiate Indoor Relays at South Bend.

On March 31 the cindermen traveled to the Butler Fieldhouse to participate in the State Indoor Meet. Here the Wildcats took fourth place, compiling 29 points, while Horace Mann won the meet with 38½ points.

Mel Trutt, star middle-distance runner, won two firsts, the 440, and half-mile run. Glenn McKay captured a first in the quarter-mile, while George Papuga emerged victorious in the mile. Charlie Hicks finished third in the broad jump, and Charles Bunker snared a similar place in one of the 880-yard runs.

HAMMOND

McKAY

Glen McKay, a sophomore, and a newcomer to Hammond High's track world, proved a surprise find this year.

Soon after reporting out for practice he began to win recognition for himself, and identified himself as an extraordinary good 440 man. When the state meet rolled around, Glen was running this event in almost record time. At the state he sped past many a worthy opponent and came home a state champion.

The best part about Glen is his remaining for two years more of competition.

PAPUGA

Here is another track man who brought a state championship to Hammond High, little Georgie Papuga, state champion in the mile. This is a case of such conscientious training that two years of steady work have made him the superior of the best milers in the state.

George is only a sophomore, and if two years can see this fellow a state champion, and a threat for a new record, what may we look for in his next two years of competition?

JACOBSON

Carl Jacobson is the last of the two which made up the winning medley relay team of Coach Scott's swimmers, and another good reason why these were able to set a new state record for this event. "Jake" is the fellow who swims the free-style in this relay event.

Although unable to take first in the single free-style events this year, he will be back next year and, with the improvement he is bound to make through the summer, should be a winner in his own right next year.

THOMAS

Little Ted Thomas, small but potent, is this year's state swim champ in the breast-stroke event. He is another boy who made good in his first year of varsity competition and will return next year to add more glories to his name.

Along with his win in this single event came his work as second man on the medley relay team which set a new state mark at Indiana University during the state meet. "Scotty" is expecting a great deal from him in '35.

MEYN

Walter Meyn, the first member of our winning medley relay team is a back stroke swimmer of no small ability. He swam two events in the state this year and proved a winner in both instances.

Besides his work with the relay, Wally won the state back stroke competition and broke a state record in so doing. He was a newcomer to the varsity this year, and will be back next year. Next season Coach Scott hopes to swim him in three events, as he is also an expert free-styler.

CHAMPIONS

TRUTT

"Mel" Trutt, veteran track star, has brought Hammond High more honors than any other devotee of the cinder track. He has been for two years holder of the State Championship in the half-mile, and last year in the mile, and has twice set new State records in the former event.

"Mel" is a senior and so has finished his last year of high school competition. His will be a hard place for Coach Easton to fill next year.

JONES

The honors of the football season this year went to Bob Jones, stocky left guard. Bob played consistently superior football all season, and when the announcements came of the All-Conference selections, his name was found at his guard position. Sometime later when the All-State Team was named, Bob was again honored by being placed on the Second State Team. Doubtless he would have made the first team had the record of this year's team been more auspicious.

Bob is also a senior and his loss will be another one keenly felt.

BOUNDS

Besides the winning of sectional and regional honors and their splendid showing down-state, the 1934 Wildcat basketballers accomplished another "first" in the history of achievement by placing "Charley" Bounds on the All-State, All-Tourney Team.

Early in the season Charley was recognized as the outstanding forward in this region, and when the State came along he was seen to be yet shining brightly among the many great players assembled at this tournament of tournaments.

Charley was a veteran from last year's sectional champs, but will be lost for next year through graduation.

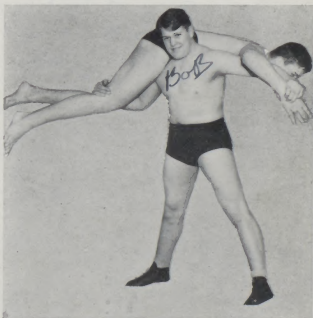

ROBERT HAAK

Robert Haak, heavyweight wrestler for Coach Scott's matmen, was the first boy to bring State honors to Hammond High. Haak won the State Heavyweight Wrestling Title and duplicated this by winning the Conference Title as well. He did not lose a match or had any draws during the season of 1934.

Last year "Bob" reached the finals of the State meet, but lost to a Bloomington wrestler.

Haak tips the scale at 210 pounds and stands six feet in height. He has an excellent physique for wrestling and uses his weight to conquer his rivals.

OUR GIRL ATHLETES

THOUGH the varsity swimming team started practice late this year, they ended up with a very successful season. Since there are not many competitive teams in the region, the team had had but four meets, two of which were return meets. The meets resulted in two victories, one tie and one defeat. The two victories were over Washington of East Chicago, while the other meets were with Whiting.

Basketball proved to hold its popularity, not only with the students, but also with the teachers.

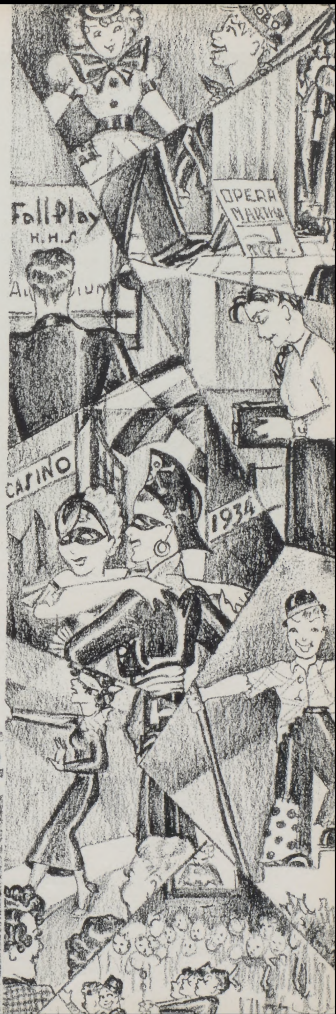

The inter-class tournament resulted in the junior championship, much to the dismay of the seniors. However, the seniors sought revenge during the class week when the two teams held a tournament of their own. The all-school team consisted of Lucy Jo Brusch, Lucille Johns, Angelus Bonnie, Margaret Beckman, Janet Chintis, and Margaret Hansen.

Volleyball also had its reign, during noon hours, class time, and after school. Although the game did not have the competitive interest of the other sports, it afforded the girls plenty of entertainment.

Speed ball, played in the fair months, was somewhat interrupted by the rainy weather and Christmas holidays. However, the fighting seniors went into the tournament with enthusiasm and ran away with the championship, even though the other classes showed clever and tricky playing.

Baseball and track were minor sports since the field was under reconstruction, but the girls were often seen in their bright green gym suits showing their ability in these sports.

COURT SCENE

(The court room is built on stilts—the process of the law must necessarily be stilted. The Persecution—Mr. Rupp—is seated at a long table.)

FIRST CASE: Kate Sproat charged with eating in the halls.

Persecution: You are charged with eating in the halls.

Kate: How absurd; I hate food; why, it spoils my appetite.

Persecution: Then it must be your glands.

Kate: I object! This is a case for the Petty Jury, not the Gland Jury.

(Kate is given a suspended sentence with a subordinate clause.)

SECOND CASE: Valentine Schulte charged with syndication (indication of sin) and running in the halls.

Persecution: You were caught red-handed.

Voice: And red-faced.

Persecution: Were you ever pinched for speeding before?

Valentine: Naw, but I've been slapped for going too fast.

(Given warning.)

THIRD CASE: Amos Hudspeth charged with snoring ¹³⁵in study hall.

Persecution: Haven't we met before?

Amos: Yes, perhaps—I'm sometimes careless where I go.

Persecution: What do you believe in?

Amos: Dreaming.

(Given alternate ninths and cold baths.)

FOURTH CASE: Londonia Fogg charged with 20th consecutive tardiness.

Persecution: You are charged with tardiness—you need to be charged with electricity.

Fogg: Well, you see, my alarm went off at 8:30.

Persecution: Hasn't it come back yet?

(Given another chance—"Git Along, Little Foggie, Git Along.")

Fogg's personal advice—"If you get in hot water, be nonchalant,—take a bath."

FIFTH CASE: Sill Lowery charged with whistling in the halls.

Persecution: You were given three ninths for this same offense only yesterday. What does this mean?

Sill: Well, you see, everyone thought that I had been punished too hard, so I thought I'd just even up.

Persecution: By the way, where did you get that gum?

Sill: Oh, you don't want to know, and I'd rather not lie.

Persecution: Tell me this instant.

Sill: Under your desk.

(Case discharged.)

SIXTH CASE: Greta Hoving charged with stealing glances.

Persecution: This is a serious case.

Greta: But I'm not guilty. It's just someone's gossip.

Persecution: Gossips are the spies of life.

Greta: I'm not guilty.

Persecution: Do you know what happens to liars when they die?

Greta: Yes, Sir; they lie still.

SEVENTH CASE: (We're all sick.)

Mary Saves the Day, or The Tales of Two Rats

A Clean Play (soaked in strong solution of Lysol) in Seven Acts

By 999 (pen name of Hi-Dilly-Dilly)

CHARACTERS

Ego John West
Rat No. 1 Bill Voss
Rat No. 2 Andrew Gyoker
Phil Royce—(a Nonentity and member of the 400, being a cipher) Phil Royce
Sally Fan Mae Bakalar
Mr. Short (Not chosen yet)

TIME—Anytime (apologies to the West gal).

ACT I

SCENE 1—(A public street in a bathroom. Enter Sally dressed in a low neck with ribbons hanging down the side.)

Sally: Help, I can't swim!

Echo: Why not?

Sally: There's no water.

SCENE 2—(A room—a desk—Sally.)

Mr. Short: Call me "Snooks" and we'll call it an A-plus.

ACT II

(An auditorium—two rats enter.)

Rat 1: How goes it?

Rat 2: (Sings "Goofus" to show how it goes.)

(Rats go out. Rats return and wait for a laugh. They don't get it. They have a fainting spell. Both go out.)

ACT III

(Dissolved in Lysol.)

ACT IV

(A laboratory—Enter the nonentity.)

Nonentity: The anatomy is a human body. It is composed of three parts: the head, the chest, and the stomach. The head is to contain the hair, the chest holds the ribs in place (aside—what a boner), and the stomach is devoted to the bowels of which there are five: a, e, i, o, u, and sometimes w and y.

(Four policemen enter. They are out of place.)

ACT V

(Domestic scene—herds of cattle, flocks of sheep, and cartons of camels dot the fields. Nonentity seen looking in cuckoo clock for eggs. Enter Sally dressed or vice versa. Nonentity seizes Sally. She screams. Her screams ring out—she is the village belle.)

Nonentity: Don't you know where bad little girls go?

Sally: Yes, most everywhere.

ACT VI

(A lapse of six weeks.)

ACT VII

(Entire cast seen jumping around trying to avoid falling hair.)

Rat 1: Wanna buy a duck?

(Rat 2 kills Rat 1, and as being killed is prejudicial to the health, they leave for California.)

CURTAIN

The Modern "Three Little Pigs"

WHO'S afraid of the big, bad wolf in cheap (Boldglatt) clothing? The three little pigs—Nathan, David, and Benny, went to the market to buy some factory throw-outs; Nate got three, Benny had two and Davey got away with a pair o' pants. Nate came home, on Warneke's wild pitch; Davey came home, saying, "Benny sent me." Benny was left on third. No hits, one run (in Benny's sock), no errors. The next day was Boldglatt Day, and, "Hold and Be low," in came the big, bad Kauffman and Wolf, Benny, Davey, and Nate! They go into a fast huddle—Benny tears off tackle for four and Davey picks up two yards of Boldglatt Bond linen. The half ends with Nate warming up their dinner in the locker room.

Davey chooses to kick, Benny kicks off; (will be buried Friday:—free fish). Nate runs the elevator through the left side of the roof, Davey slashes off two bucks from the price list. Benny cuts around the right end for a buck and a half (great money-players these boys). They're in a muddle again,—it starts to rain; Nate's a good mudder but not so hot as a father, so Davey shouts, "To the cows with the fodder." The whistle blows, our friends, B. G., N. G., and D. G. are still blowing, too; Nate yells, "Sock him in the jar, B. G." Nate hollers, "Don't give up the ship, sell it." Benny don't say nutting, (nice quiet lad, that Benny). The third quarter ends in Benny's pocket. The referee jots down two-bits in the profit and loss column.

It is now late in the last quarter, the boys are working overtime for 66c; Dave throws a pass to Nate, who takes it and goes to the show. Somebody heaves a long pass which looks like it will be intercepted by Benny, but Benny gets out of the way of the pig-skin because you know how particular Benny is on religion. Nate sews up the game; but Dave, being a practical joker, takes the stitches out. Benny stumbles on a fumble yelling "40-love," and with that or without it the Boldglatts win (they a'ways do).

The boys are awarded sweaters: Davey takes a turtle neck (he likes 'em in soup); Nate takes a stripe with two sweaters; and Benny asks for an overcoat, he's got a sweater from last Xmas yet. The boys break up camp and return to their business of chiseling on the NRA, which to them means Never Refuse Anything. Charity begins at Boldglatts, (it never got any farther).

P. S.—Instead of giving the boys Gold Footballs as prizes, they were given footballs with "Gold Blatters" and a coupon good for one 19c kid's knee pad. (Good only on Sunday)—Store closed on Sundays and Holidays.

THIS is station H₂O, coming out of the ether. The exact time is five minutes after fifteen minutes to half-past midnight, central pacific standard time. Tonight, ladies and gentlemen, we bring to you Mr. Lawrence E. Kraay, the famous rancher from the agricultural metropolis of Munster, Indiana. (Blare of trumpets, or noises to that effect.)

Kraay—Hi!

F. Slater—Hi!

J. Hemstock—Hi!

Slater—How high is up? Er—Heh—How are you, Mr. Kraay?

Kraay—Wal, I be fine, how be ye?

Slater—Mr. Kraay, where is your farm?

Kraay—Wal, it's quite a ways south of here, it's a two-hour journey.

Slater—How did you come, by train?

Kraay—No, by wagon.

Hemstock—Yeah, 'at reminds me, an empty wagon is worth two in the bush, er—is worth wagons,—ah—a wagon—

Slater—How many head of horses have you on your ranch?

Kraay—Wal, every horse has to have a head, but onct a horse died and we dug a hole for it and buried it, but the head stuck out, so we chopped it off and dug a separate hole fer it. That's a case of a horse losin' its head, eh?

Slater—How long have you been pursuing your occupation, Mr. Kraay?

Kraay—Wal, the derned critter got away yesterday morning and we ain't ketched it yet.

Hemstock—Yep, a rolling stone makes hay while,—er—ah—makes the most noise—er—no—while the hay—er—ah—

Slater—You must be well educated to run such a business.

Kraay—Yep, I won a spelling match down in Posey county onct—

Hemstock—Is that your son over there, Mr. Kraay?

Kraay—Yep, this is Zeke. Husky, ain't he?

Hemstock—What do you feed him, Grapenuts?

Kraay—Naw, grapes ain't ripe yet—we raise him on corn products—corn bread, corn liquor, and a corn-cob pipe.

Slater—How do you like our fair city?

Kraay—I like it pretty good. The rooms in the hotel is good. Kinda hard to get round in these here buses—wish't I'd brought old Nelly up to the city with me—I might be able to get somewhere in this old town—old Nelly can go anywhere—leastwise she can in the country. But what I want to know is what's this doohicky I'm talking into . . .

Slater—That's a microphone—

Kraay—Oh, yeah, Mike's home, but I want to know what is that—

Slater—Yes, Mr. Kraay, that is a microphone—

Kraay—Yeah, Mike's home now from the war—but what is this thing here—

Slater—That will be all, Mr. Kraay. Thank you very much—

Hemstock—Heh, heh, he who—who—who laughs last save nine—eh—he saves nine—ah—he saves a laugh—I mean—oh, well—good-bye, folks—

TAXES AND THE HAMMOND SCHOOLS

Taxes paid in Lake county by the Northern Indiana Public Service Company and its affiliates support a substantial part of the expense of operating the school system. For every day this year, the Company will pay $993.50 in property taxes in Lake county, in addition to the gross income tax which is returned to the school system by the state.

In Hammond alone, the $44,733.84 property taxes paid to the school city by the Northern Indiana Public Service Company will be sufficient to educate more than 12 per cent of the high school pupils for an entire school year.

State taxes paid in 1934 on Hammond property of the Northern Indiana Public Service Company and the Chicago District Electric Generating Station will aggregate approximately $640,000. The total cost of operating Hammond's school system for an entire year is approximately $730,000.

Hammond benefits by these large tax payments because it is the home office of the Northern Indiana Public Service Company, which provides gas and electric service over an area of 12,000 square miles. In addition to this, the company employs more than 600 local persons in the Hammond district.

A Word to Our Fashion Graduates

Another climax in a student's life—graduation—and what an important occasion it is! Mother and Dad are just as excited as the youngest graduate—and here's the place they'll come to for graduation frocks for sister, and swell-elegant suits for brother. As style-right as we can be, our values win honorable mention too!

DOROTHY STRONG INSTRUCTING

The Hammond Business College is 30 years old—the oldest school in this district. It is easy, therefore, to place our students in all parts of the county. Many employers of this district at one time attended the Hammond Business College.

It is my sincere desire and ambition to use the training I have had as a De Pauw University Graduate, and a private secretary in giving the student a thorough business education.

We have a complete business course.

The school cannot be explained in writing, but I would urge you to visit this "Established Education Institution" and learn about the work and its graduates' opportunities.
